

Reverend Angelia Rowe Garner, Esq.

Reverend Garner, popularly known as “Reverend Esquire,” uniquely carries the mantle of both preacher and attorney. A native of Washington, D.C., Reverend Garner is a graduate of Howard University and the Georgetown University Law Center. Believing that God requires excellence in “kingdom builders,” she also earned her Master’s Degree from the Bethel Seminary in 2014. Reverend Garner’s formative spiritual years were spent at Faith Temple No. 2 Church, under the leadership of Bishop L. N. Forbes. While at Faith Temple, she served as an usher, Bible school teacher, choir director, and was the church’s youngest radio announcer.

In 1993, she joined the First Baptist Church of Glenarden (FBCG) in Glenarden, Maryland, under the Pastorate and tutelage of John K. Jenkins, Sr. As a member of FBCG, she has been an active participant in the Intercessory Prayer Group, the Women’s Ministry, and the Bible Institute. In addition to participating in activities within Glenarden’s walls, the Reverend has traveled to Guyana, South America and Dobrovista, Ukraine, preaching and teaching as a missionary on behalf of the church. Currently, the Reverend is an Associate Pastor at the First Baptist Church of Glenarden. In addition to her service at FBCG, she successfully completed a two-year assignment at Victory Grace Center (VGC), under the Pastorate of Dr. Jasmin Sculark.

Reverend Garner’s ministry has afforded her the opportunity to conduct several revivals, conferences, retreats, and seminars nationally. The Reverend has traveled to Jordan, Egypt, Italy, Spain, Turkey, Greece, and Israel for education and spiritual enrichment. She is also an Alpha Chapter initiate of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc.

Recently, Reverend Esquire launched “Sister to Sister,” a ministry outreach focused on the spiritual, mental, legal, and emotional needs of adult women in Capitol Heights, Maryland. Additionally, she has a heart and passion for adolescent girls. Determined to develop and impact the next generation of women who aspire to become preachers and lawyers, she is the visionary and founder of R.E.I.T.s (Reverend Esquires in Training), a mentoring program and camp to ignite the passion within young ladies to pursue and fulfill their God-inspired dreams.

Eyes have not seen, neither have ears heard what God has in store for this anointed vessel, as she defends her number one client, Jesus Christ.
